Acquire the skills to inspect ID documents

The Keesing ID e-Course

Keesing's ID e-Course consists of 4 modules and teaches participants basic profiling and document authentication skills. By the end of the course, they will be able to perform effective ID checks. What's more, our interactive e-course allows them to study at a time that suits them.

This course focuses on three key questions

1. Is the document in question genuine?
2. Is the document in question valid?
3. Is the person presenting the document also the rightful document holder?

For each of the above key questions we show you what to look out for (knowledge) and which aspects of the document to check (skills). Subsequently, the knowledge and skills acquired for each key question will be tested.
